SyrCOM–99
Third International Forum on Syriac Computing
Notre Dame, Indiana, 18 June 1999

GEORGE A. KIRAZ, MURRAY HILL, NEW JERSEY

[1]   The first forum in this series was held (in association with Syriac Symposium II) in 1995 at the Catholic University of America, Washington D.C. The second forum was held (in association with VIIum SYMPOSIUM SYRIACUM) in 1996 at Uppsala University, Sweden. SyrCOM-99 will be held in association with SYRIAC SYMPOSIUM III at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana.

[2]   The aim of this series of forums is two-fold: firstly, to give academics and professionals who work on computational projects related to Syriac studies an opportunity to meet and share their work and experience; secondly, to provide scholars and computer users with presentations and talks which may be of help in practical applications such as word processing, fonts and other user-related software.

[3]   Although the dead-line for submissions is over due, late submission may be entertained depending on time availability and the quality of submissions.

[4]   Reviewing Committee:
> Dr. Gary Anderson, Harvard University.
> Dr. James Coakley, Harvard University.
> Dr. George A. Kiraz, Bell-Labs, Lucent Technologies.
> Dr. Bonnie G. Stalls, ISI, University of Southern California.

[5]   Registration:
SyrCOM–99 is part of Syriac Symposium III. All matters regarding registration and accomodation should be addressed to Syriac Symposium III. For all matters regarding SyrCOM–99, please contact (preferably by e-mail):
